It is with great pleasure that we welcome our football law colleagues from around the world to Lausanne. We are honoured to host this important event on the shores of Lake Geneva and are looking forward to a lively and interesting exchange of ideas.

David Casserly, Partner, Kellerhals Carrard

Kellerhals Carrard is one of the world's leading international sports law firms. Its practice covers all areas of sports law, including disputes and commercial matters.

The firm has unparalleled experience in the resolution of sports disputes and is one of the most active firms appearing before the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS), particularly in football and doping-related disputes. The firm is uniquely equipped to act before the CAS, as it combines expertise in the procedural law of the CAS (Swiss law) with experienced advocates who are native speakers of the CAS' official languages (English and French). This is in addition to the firm's comprehensive linguistic capacity (including German, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Russian and Mandarin) and its lawyers' licences to practise in numerous jurisdictions.

Kellerhals Carrard also has a unique and unparalleled insight into the administration and business of sport, and provides ongoing advice to some of the world's leading sports organisations, teams and individuals with respect to their commercial programs (hosting, sponsorship, media, merchandising, licensing, image rights etc.), as well as regulatory and governance issues.

In its 2017 and 2018 editions, Who's Who Legal named Kellerhals Carrard as the leading Sports & Entertainment firm in Switzerland.
